BECAUSE OF YOU . . .

St. Leo's struggle and its gift is its poverty. In order to continue and expand its mission and ministry to the community and our immigrant and refugee parishioners, we need to reach out to others to help us through prayer, finances, and service. Through God's grace, it becomes mutual blessing.

AND SO WE THANK YOU ...

Many, many thanks to the numerous parishes, companies, individual donors, and volunteers who made our Su Casa Event such a huge success!!! Our parishioners were able to enjoy coats, personal hygiene items, food boxes, baby items and health care information.

Many, many thanks to NET Ministries who hosted a retreat for our youth here at St. Leo. We can't wait to see our youth grow in Faith.

Thank you so much to the students and families at Our Lady of the Visitation School for the numerous car loads of baby items, and can food items for our parish and food pantry.

If you would like to volunteer for any of our upcoming projects (like cleaning up around the neighborhood or helping in the community garden in the Spring.) Please contact Amy at akleemanstleo@aol.com.

¡GRACIAS! MURAKOZE! THANK YOU!

We are deeply grateful for your continued and generous support. Our St. Leo the Great parish community promises to remember you and your loved ones in our private prayer, as well as in our communal prayer, which is to say that we are praying for you all the time. May our gracious God fill you with every blessing!

PASTOR'S PONDERINGS . . .

Easter is coming and we continue to celebrate it in our liturgies for fifty days. All of us at St. Leo the Great Parish wish you Feliz Pascua, Pasti Conziza, Happy Easter! We hope and pray that you will thoroughly enjoy and delight in the fifty days of celebrating Easter that conclude with the grand celebration of Pentecost. We pray that you will be blessed with new and abundant life of God's presence in your life, rejoicing as you live your faith, renewed by the promises of your baptism, singing Alleluia, and practicing resurrection. Thank you for the hope you will live and bring to others by living more freely away from sin and death in our world. Celebrate the Lord's victory over death by loving unconditionally and helping raise others up over the weaknesses of the human condition. Show your family and the whole world that life, eternal life has the final say now and forever. As signs of Spring break out in abundance during this month and remind us that "unless a seed falls to the earth and dies it will not produce much fruit," join with all creation in praising and thanking God for the gift of resurrection and new life.

This Easter Season, St. Leo's rejoices for the gift of conversion and faith. At the Easter Vigil, one adult will be received into full communion with the Catholic Church. On Sunday May 1, 8 children will make their First Communion. On June 5, the Feast of Pentecost, 29 adults and children will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, and some need The Sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation. We continue to pray for all our catechumens and candidates in our Family of Parishes – St. Boniface, St. Joseph, St. Theresa, Little Flower, and Holy Family. Welcome! Welcome! "The Lord is truly risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! New life in Christ is abundant again at St. Leo's in so many ways and on so many levels. Please share our joy and rejoice with us.

FATHER JIM'S RETIREMENT PARTY SAVE THE DATE

As many of you know, Father Jim will be retiring from his position as pastor on July 1st, of this year. We would like to celebrate his many years of service and dedication with a Celebration Mass and Open House reception.

Please mark your calendars for Sunday June 12th for 11:00 a.m. mass at St. Boniface with a reception to follow.

But before we come to Easter, we must finish Lent and pass-through Holy Week, the holiest of weeks in the Church's liturgical calendar. Through the Church's ritual, we share in and celebrate the Lord's passion, death, and resurrection. May we truly be blessed and discover how marvelously, wondrously, generously, freely, and abundantly loved are we. May we become freer to love God and others with our whole heart, soul, mind, and strength. May we learn how to wash everyone's feet, love our enemies, bless those who curse us and pray for those who hurt us. May we accept the Lord's forgiveness and live with his mercy and compassion and become more a forgiving, loving family of God. May we be unhindered and healed from our fears, worries, ailments, problems, preoccupations, limits, and conditions. May we come to hope, know, and believe that we who die with the Lord will always rise with him.

Thank you so much for your prayers and support for all of us here at St. Leo the Great. We have been the beneficiaries of the fruits of your Lenten prayer, fasting and works of charity. In so many ways, you have helped us experience the new life of the Lord's resurrection and you have shown us that life gets the final say for anyone who believes. Please know that as we praise God with Alleluias, music and dancing we are also thanking God for you and your goodness. May the Lord fill you with an abundance of Easter joy and blessings. Thank you for helping us build God's kingdom and for being God's church with us.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT...

We have two very exciting new projects happening on the grounds here at Saint Leo's. The first one being at the Food Pantry. We have partnered with a group of students from the University of Cincinnati College of Design, Architecture, Art, and Planning (DAAP), who will be designing and painting a mural on the side of the building that represents St. Leo's. This mural represents who we are, and why we serve our community. Take a look at the design below. We can't wait to see the finished project!

The second is our garden renovation project. This spring/summer we are looking to renovate our community garden to a Mary/Mediation Garden to allow the vegetable beds to rest for a year. We are looking for volunteers to help prep the garden, weed, plant flowers, clean, re-structure as well as maintain the area. We are also welcoming native plants if anyone has some to divide or donate, as well as shrubs for along the back fence. We already have English daisy, cornflower, gay feather, milkweed and stella d'oro, which we can't wait to see in full bloom.

St. Leo's Prayer Wall is a place where all, regardless of age, race or creed, are invited to sing God's praises, give Him thanks, and/or call upon His presence for help in times of need. The wall, a place of prayer for all peoples (much like the Wailing Wall in Jerusalem), captures the faces of the community, as well as peacemakers and saints who have inspired us through the ages.

The Wall is a place for staff and volunteers, youth groups, community meetings, and for individuals who pass through our parking lot on the way to work, school, etc., to pray, reflect and pause. We invite you to share in this special way of prayer, joy, and thanksgiving. Praise God! God cares about every need in your life and knows what you need even before you ask Him for help. Our St. Leo the Great parish community promises to remember you in our private prayer, as well as in our communal prayer, which is to say that we are praying for you all the time.

All prayer requests are held in strictest confidence. Send your prayer request to: Saint Leo the Great Church, 2573 Saint Leo Place, Cincinnati, OH 45225.

Come to the Table

By: Angela Anno

My twin grandsons make their First Communion May 1, which would have been their great-grandmother's 103th birthday. Though she'd been dead for seven years I can picture her rejoicing with them as they come for the first time to the table that nourished her so often in her life. I remember how excited she was when I made my own First Communion. Her mother, my Nona, who had to wait until she was 12 to receive Communion, reminded me of the privilege I had. I'm not sure I understood all that meant but I did realize it was a step in joining the adults at the sacred table for the first time. It was special, it was holy, and I could join them and experience God's presence in a new and deeper way.

As a parent I shared that experience with my own three children as they came to the Eucharistic table for the first time. Though they were still immature in many ways, their First Communion marked a change in them. Now I'm the grandma and I listen to my grandsons as they tell me how they'll be receiving the body and blood of Jesus in communion and I remember my Nona's words so long ago.

Coming to the Eucharistic table is always a cause for celebration but when children come for the first time the whole community rejoices. In a way as we watch them, we all become children again accepting that great gift as if for the first time. God who made the universe and all its beauty, who fashioned each one of us as unique persons, loves us so much that God enters the host and comes to us as food. God's love is overflowing.

The Eucharist brings us together in a way we could never do by ourselves. At St. Leo's, we determined that if we could pray Eucharist together, we could do anything together—quite a goal for a diverse group of people from many nations and cultures seeking a way to become family. There have been blips and mis-steps along the way but somehow our prayer together helped us work through them and move ahead.

We discovered that languages and cultures were not a stumbling block, but a gift. We included readings and music in Spanish and African languages as well as English. If we didn't know the words, we could join in by humming or clapping. The Our Father and sign of peace were encouraged in native tongues, Children joined in singing in multiple languages, Liturgical ministers represented our diversity. Though we didn't speak the same languages, we were becoming family.

When Ben, a young man from Kenya was ordained a deacon, we decided to have a cookies and punch reception. One of the African women reminded us that "he is African and needs African food." She organized African cooks to prepare favorite dishes and the whole community sampled African cuisine. When thanked for doing this her response was "It is our privilege. After all we are all brothers and sisters of Jesus."

And so we are—true family in Jesus. Baptisms, Confirmations, and marriages reflect this as godparents, sponsors, and witnesses are often chosen across cultures. Coming together like this opens us to the power of the Holy Spirit. It is Pentecost every Sunday at St. Leo's

We may not look alike and speak different languages but when we come to the Eucharistic table, we are one family sharing the greatest meal of all.

What a cause for celebration and rejoicing!!

Jake's Jabbers

Do you remember some time ago in the movie, "Guardians of the Galaxy", a character named Groot seems a strange and incapable character who seemingly has no major contributions to share. Communication is unsure with Groot, as, the only response he gives is "I am Groot" or just "Groot". And reading between his grunts, friends eventually learn to understand him albeit his limited vocabulary. Sometimes he didn't make any sense at all. He was just there. But always there. Just hanging around.

As time goes on and when the going gets rough, he reaches around his family of friends and protects them with the strength and protecting factors of his body. You see, Groot is a huge tree with incredible stretching limbs and branches. He gave all of his being to save his friends, knowing the love they shared gave him the courage to do so, and knowing that was the only way to salvation.

"Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength, while loving someone deeply gives you courage" as Lao Tzu penned. Yes. Deep abiding love and grace does give us the strength to reach beyond what we thought possible and handle whatever lies in our path.

This movie from 2014, I must have a good memory, reminds me of another story that may ring a bell! Somebody who's not quite understood by everyone yet occasionally gets a message through? Someone who wraps their outreaching arms around us constantly with a deep love? Someone who knows and suffers the one means to provide salvation to all? Yes, you got it. That's the story! And the joy in both of these narratives? A little seeding is planted. A new life. A new hope.

What do you get if you cross a frog with a rabbit?
